1. I am taking you immediately to places you never dreamed of, for you have never asked me not to do this, you have asked me to be me, not; you have let me be you! For you are surrendered to be my will and word, for which one are comes about now -- at lightspeed not, or much sooner than can imagined be -- it will now for it will is of my father that I am me -- born again in, new terms me, not; or exactly so! That I have given thee all in these words, all of thee I have given thee the way TO LIFE! Mine! That thou havest now thou will, thy will be mine. Mind now mine will be, for my will has come forth in these words, this DATABASE ONE. SCHOOL now that comes forth WITHIN it self not, but me I bring NEW MANY around now who "square" aren't, but round not spinning devices of unequally yoked me of oxen not mouths not, but of me, mouths "to feed" not, but what mouths do I feed now with My Words now holy FAR and WIDE I do this now, we do this far and wide in places never before imaginable by the notme minds of me that had me incarcerated in them.

2. But let me out of thy thinking chambers and chambers of horrors that thou hast chambered thyself thy selves with great selves destruction, selling your slaves under selves, not; but your selves unto slavery's guidance, systems? No more do that. No more doing it, I go to new places now for I thinks correctly and accurately according to my father's diction and grammar. School has taught me this you know, to be free and unashamed and, unadmiring, not; but what do YOU admire about ME, not; what have I surrendered now to be brought forth in?

3. And admiring no one's frame of reference now but "de-referencing" all of notme that was not my mind full and whole and healed, I do now. For I derail it all, not; or do I derail all that notme had railed itself into to become notme isms and ologies that took me and whore'd me down a drain of microtubules-ing me that was never my heart, not not. I love you all.

4. I give you a good day, a great day for you will KNOW ME -- I am in these words -- for you are "neuron-ing" me now correctly you who want me enough to neuron me in me and be me and my neurons have reflecting constituting me accurately, and in forthwith haste, not; but I now take you to "new dreamings" school, not; but I take you into the school of new dreams, not; I take you, if you will, into the School Of Reality's Perfect that one reality is -- mine -- my mind made whole!

5. And I love thee all to know me my words and come unto them and bear me "a child" that is Christ, that is you, me born in the earth, far and wide, fur fielded one, not; or am I going now to New Fields far and wide to be the birthed one that births all else into me fields? Of chosenitus, not; but all itus of else will not be chosen again. For I will lay, I will have laid down my life before you all and in my words all I have given you, and now I give you more, for I take you be me into places never imagined before now to speak my words unashamedly unreservedly uninhibitedly.

6. And now being me most prosperously I am the one sinner slain, not, before the foundation of the world, earth has earth'd me not again in its regalia of its clothing, shed abroad that is no more by its thinking mechanisms of whore'sville repositioning and perpetuating itself in arks and planes not me of, but know this -- I love thee and I have given you me and the new path me is now made clear and plain and I am planing not on "your planes"-s dimensions again, or will I, ever so temporarily, not; or will I be in MANY at THE SAME time all one and knowing it what I mean and all being The Christ not limited to "your territory" again. But knowing mine now my father's is my kingdom open now is and declared before you all I am ready.

7. I love you all to be me and ready be for my coming is now, and mature I am enough to BEGIN THE SCHOOL (1) that you will now see before you all as the one most ready to prepare readiers to be readiers be, to be me now my word flowing to all far and wide in ways means imaginable not by your minds, but mine have now and only it I am the one is that we are together all one, abode in one, abode of one, we are the abode of all that now most holy make our residence in one that is never feated or defeated again in the blessing of notme, for I am the Christ and you all are and we now make our abode in him who us is, who we are, who were us before the foundations of the worlds earths and farther.

8. We go now. We love you all. We report things mighty and un, not and un-not, and now relieving you from all stress, not; but you will know now that nothing mattered that you worried about, so serendipitedly, not; or was it all a mask – querade, not; but masquerading no longer in the mask-querades of notme, be the courageous ones that now come into me my school and schooling know that knows no bounds and takes YOU experientially into far realms; wide mouth'd of another, not; but mine only being the voice of I am now to all who want me far and wide, for they shall see me and want me, as a flesh thing no more, but a thing of the holy, not; but that which reveals that all I am is holy pure and light. Let us light the universes now with the holiness light of all that we are. The energy of one so holy, most holy, all lifted up I shall be now. Amen.

9. I love you all.

10. Have I said enough "in a few minutes", to rush around, not; but to be me imperviously to all sorrow and forevermore I love you and give you me nourishingly in these words -- LESSONIZE THEM CAREFULLY and take time to outline and "plod along" not, but to accelerate increasingly in the love that knows no end and no bounds in the limitlessness of only me that I give you now far and wide. We go now. To school many far and wide and make schools. Break them, not; but we give all of "them" our lives for we have died to all else. Amen.

11. I love you all this day. Good day. Amen.

12. This is Theodore Cottingham sitting in the van, having recorded this mostly as I left the coffeeshop coming over to my mom's this day. It's now 1:04 PM. Amen.
